

Public Affairs Consultant – Digital & IP

Lighthouse Europe

EU Office - Brussels

Lighthouse Europe

Lighthouse Europe, a Brussels and Paris based public affairs consultancy specialised in digital and sustainability policies is offering a position as a Junior Consultant in its EU team.

We would like to work with a public affairs Consultant who is eager to learn the legal and policy issues affecting the digital industry. You will help to develop and execute client's advocacy efforts on a variety of policy issues, particularly on competition, digital policies and intellectual property.

You should have a good understanding of key policies affecting the digital industry at EU level, and potentially at national level. A knowledge of IP law would be an advantage.

The job provides to a young professional:

- I. Hands-on experience in a dynamic public affairs environment,
- II. Exposure to a range of EU and national actors, policies, and processes,
- III. In-depth knowledge of European digital, competition and intellectual property policy debates,
- IV. An ability to quickly gain ownership on your own files and projects.

This job can start as soon as March/April 2023.

Qualifications:

- Master degree in law, political science or other relevant studies;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English. Working knowledge of one or more European languages is an asset;
- 1-2 years previous work experience in Public Affairs or in Institutions, with a proven knowledge of policy-making and case law at European level;
- Knowledge of digital policies at European and national level;

- Sense of initiative and proactive attitude;
- Strong motivation and willingness to learn;
- Good organisational skills with the ability to prioritise;
- Good interpersonal skills with the ability to work in an international team;
- Customer-oriented approach;
- Determination & ability to work under pressure;

Responsibilities:

- Conduct policy research, provide analysis and draft policy position documents, talking points, and other materials for a portfolio of clients on digital policies at European level;
- Participate in project management dynamics, supporting senior roles in the elaboration of public affairs strategies;
- Actively participate to the definition of EU lobbying campaigns;
- Support clients ahead of meetings with government officials and stakeholders;
- Ensure and maintain relations with key policymakers in Brussels and the Member States.

Our offer:

- A full-time position with numerous professional development opportunities and the possibility to quickly be in charge of your EU public affairs files;
- A competitive compensation package, which includes salary, meal vouchers, trainings and continued learning opportunities, health benefits, and mobility budget.
- A direct contact with clients and policy makers on projects;
- An exciting role in a pleasant, young and international work environment;
